Do not open this booklet until you are told to do so. While you are waiting, read and observe the following instructions carefully. Write your name and index number in ink in the spaces provided above.

This booklet consists of two papers. Answer Paper 2, which comes first, in your answer booklet and Paper 1 on your Objective Test answer sheet. Paper 2 will last 1 hour 15 minutes after which the answer booklet will be collected. Do not start Paper 1 until you are told to do so. Paper 1 will last 45 minutes.

This paper consists of three parts: A, B and C. Answer three questions in all; one question from Part A and all the questions in Part B and Part C. Answer all questions in your answer booklet. Credit will be given for clarity of expression and orderly presentation of material.

PART A WRITING
[30 marks]

*Answer one question only from this part.
Your composition should be about 250 words long.*

1. Your friend who lives in another town thinks that school life is boring and wants to leave school to start petty trading. Write a letter to encourage him/her to remain in school. In the letter, discuss two aspects of school life that you find enjoyable.
2. A teacher from your school won the first prize as the National Best Teacher. You were selected to represent your school at the ceremony. Write a report on what you saw and discuss two lessons you learned as you observed the event.
3. It is an election year and the major political parties have started campaigning. As a peace-loving member of your community, write an article for publication in a local newspaper of the community, discussing two ways of maintaining peace during the period.

PART B
READING
[20 marks]

4. Read the following passage carefully and answer all the questions which follow.

Migration is a common practice among animals: birds, fish and human beings. Migration of human beings has both positive and negative effects on individuals in the society.

When Bello migrated to the city, he left his wife, Aisha, an enterprising traditional caterer, to fend for herself and their two children. During one of his occasional visits home, his father asked him to take his wife and children to live with him in the city. Reluctantly, Bello gave in.

Aisha had imagined that she would be living in a neat, beautiful and comfortable house in the city. Instead, she, her husband and their children were accommodated in a single room. Washroom facilities were shared with other families. To worsen her plight, her housekeeping allowance was so meagre that she could hardly feed her family properly. She wanted to work, but like the other female migrants, she could not find any job. She wondered how they would survive, be able to send money to their parents and save for a rainy day.

One day, she decided to give her husband a treat and also socialize with their friends. She prepared one of the most inexpensive but tasty delicacies of her people and shared it with her neighbours. Even passers-by popped in for a bite. It was a very successful get together. Her labour was not in vain. Soon, other women asked her to teach them how to cook some local dishes. She also provided catering services at many events. She was handsomely rewarded. Gradually, Aisha Catering Services became a household name and there was remarkable improvement in their lives.

- (a) What was Aisha's occupation before she went to the city?
- (b) In which two ways did migrant workers spend their money?
- (c) In one adjective, describe how Aisha felt when she arrived in the city.
- (d) "Reluctantly, Bello gave in".
Why was Bello reluctant?

- (e) Explain in your own words the following expressions as used in the passage:
- (i) ... to fend for;
 - (ii) save for a rainy day;
 - (iii) was not in vain.
- (f) For each of the following words, give another word or phrase that means the same and can fit into the passage:
- (i) occasional;
 - (ii) prepared;
 - (iii) handsomely;
 - (iv) improvement.
- (g) In two sentences of not more than ten words each, summarize two problems that migrants face as expressed in the third paragraph.

Answer all the questions

Each question is followed by four options lettered A to D. Find the correct option for each question and shade in pencil on your answer sheet, the space which bears the same letter as the option you have chosen. Give only one answer to each question. An example is given below.

From the options A to D, choose the one which most suitably completes the following sentence.

It is still dark and therefore not to go out alone.

- A. safe
- B. safely
- C. safety
- D. save

The correct answer is unbelievable, which is lettered A and therefore answer space A would be shaded.

■ ☐ B ☐ ☐ C ☐ ☐ D ☐ ☐ E ☐

Be sure you understand the instructions at the beginning of each section before you try to answer any of the questions that follow them.

Do not spend too much time on a question. If you find a question difficult, leave it and go on to the next one, then come and try it again later.

Use pencil throughout. If you wish to change an answer, erase your first answer completely and shade the appropriate space for the new answer.

Do all rough work on this paper.

Now answer the following questions
